Notice

A virtual (online) training programme on tomato processing is being organised by the department on 24-08-2020 under the project, “Value addition of Fruits and Vegetables of Western Himalayas through eco-friendly and low cost technologies” sponsored by National Mission on Himalayan Studies (NMHS). Processing of tomatoes into some commercially important products like puree, ketchup, sauce etc. will be demonstrated in the programme. Concerned entrepreneurs, growers, students etc. are advised to attend the training programme which is expected to start from 10:30 am. Interested participants are advised to contact the department through Dr. Mudasir Bashir Mir (Ph. no: 9682649369) and Mr. Masarat Hussain Dar (Ph. No. 7006281220) to obtain the link for participation in the session.
